

WHAT IS IMPORTANT TO YOU IN YOUR OWN LIFE? CULTURAL DIFFERENCES AND CONSEQUENCES

A seminar organized as a part of project “Discourses of Change: Linguistics, Literature, Culture, and FLT” (Project RD-08-94 from 2 Feb. 2021) by the Department of English Studies, Faculty of Humanities, Konstantin Preslavsky University of Shumen

10 April 2021 (Saturday)

Time: 9:30 - 11 and 11:30 - 13.

Type: Educational webinar on increasing intercultural competence.

Guest lecturer: Nedka Dimitrova, PhD, University of Management Varna.

Google Meet Link: <https://meet.google.com/ffn-hdxx-gxs>

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Assistant Professor Nedka Dimitrova, PhD received a PhD in Linguistics and MA in English studies and Mass communications at Konstantin Preslavsky University of Shumen. Her main areas of research interest and publications are on the subject of intercultural communication with a focus on cultural differences and their impact on the process of thinking and learning in higher education settings. Nedka Dimitrova has a long-standing professional experience of teaching international students from Europe, Asia and Africa. She is keeping up with new ideas, methods and trends in the field of education through Erasmus+ teaching mobilities in numerous higher education institutions, practical trainings and participation in various EU projects and other professional programmes as a lecturer and trainer at the Department for Modern Educational Methods at Varna University of Management, Bulgaria.

Looking forward to seeing you at the webinar!